transport links. The proximity to Málaga Airport, with daily connections throughout Europe, is a great advantage for those looking for the ideal place to invest and live. El Pinillo station connects you to the airport, Málaga's AVE train station, and the city center in just a few minutes.

The residential complex comprises 16 homes and 32 parking spaces, structurally arranged across a basement, a ground floor with private gardens, first and second floors, and an upper level of penthouses with private solariums and optional pools.

The communal areas feature a multifunctional lounge equipped with a small kitchen, communal Wi-Fi, a terrace, a saltwater pool, and communal gardens.

The interiors include large windows that let in the warm Mediterranean light, turning the terraces into natural extensions of the living rooms; a layout that maximizes the use of space; a carefully considered orientation that allows for exceptional light and serene sunsets; and elegant, top-quality materials that create an atmosphere of luxury and exclusivity.
