Description de la propriété

Magnificent spacious homes set within an exclusive gated community boasting on-site amenities, and breathtaking golf views perched on the edge of the renowned San Roque Golf course. A stunning development of highly contemporary three and four bedroom front line golf town homes. Located between Jerez and Marbella at the tip of the Iberian Peninsula, this development is one of Andalucas best-kept secrets. This privileged private development is made up of only 46 refined sleek and contemporary properties which are extremely spacious and enjoy fabulous views. Within a fully enclosed gated community, the town homes are set within manicured gardens around a stunning free form swimming pool, ideal for relaxing. Sotogrande Marina is a world class marina with all the amenities you might expect of a glamorous resort such as this. Sit back and watch the luxury yachts and sailing boats coming and going. With a collection of shops, restaurants and bars as well as an artisan Sunday market. This complex
