Description de la propriété

Nestled just below the charming little white village of Mijas and is only a 10 minute drive away from the beautiful coast with its many beaches and excellent fish restaurants and tapas bars. The finca is entered through an iron gate, leading to 3 acres of lush vegetation including citrus and avocado trees as well as an opulence of bougainvillea and oleander bushes blooming at all times of the year. The property has been a cherished home for the owners family for over 45 years. The well-furnished property has had an extensive renovation recently, the two pools and three tennis courts are in excellent condition. Besides the main villa, there are four individual houses, each with its own special charm and with plenty of privacy. The property can also be rented as a whole for larger groups. Organic agriculture has been central to the workings of the ranch since the beginning and provides for delicious fruits and vegetables. There is an abundance of orange, tangerine and lemon trees, as wel
